February 2017 -- An Important Announcement

February 9, 2017

An Important Message to My Clients

I have decided to change the scope of my business. I will not set up a table at shows outside Florida. I will visit certain shows for a day or two, but I will not have a table. Also, because of the limited number of shows I will be doing, consigned coins will not get enough exposure at shows, and therefore I will not take any new consignments and will return any current consignments. All other aspects of my business, i.e., the website, the FUN shows, the upcoming ANA show in Florida, will be the same.

The rationale behind this decision is that my wife, Karen, is suffering from a disease. The diagnosis has been made, but the prognosis is uncertain. In view of this situation, I simply cannot spend a week at a time behind a table at a coin show.

Karen and I appreciate all you have meant to us over the years, and appreciate your thoughts and prayers during this time. We truly thank you.

Upcoming Events

My next show is tomorrow in my new hometown of Sebring, FL. In early March, I will have Table #1017 at the Spring ANA National Money Show March 9 - 11 at the Orange County Convention Center West Hall E. At the end of March, I will be at the Baltimore show Thursday and Friday, March 30 - 31. At that show, I will be walking the floor and I will not have a table. If there are any coins you want to see in person, please let me know in advance of that show. We can set up an appointment for you to see the coins, or you can call my cell phone or page me at the show.
